Paying for Health Care and Prescription Drugs

Medicare

Benefit: Health insurance that helps pay for preventive care, doctor visits, hospital stays and prescription drugs.

Who can apply: People who are 65 and older, and younger people with disabilities or kidney failure.

How to apply: Call the Social Security Administration toll-free at 1-800-772-1213 and tell the operator where you live. You can also log on to www.socialsecurity.gov and select “Questions about Medicare.” For information about the Medicare prescription drug coverage, call 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227) or log on to www.medicare.gov.

For additional assistance, call the Iowa Senior Health Insurance Information Program (SHIIP) toll-free at 1-800-351-4664 or log on to www.shiip.state.ia.us.

Medicare Savings Programs

Benefit: Pays for some of the costs of Medicare, including the Part B premium, deductibles, and co-payments. How much you get depends on your income and assets.

Who can apply: People who get Medicare and earn around $1,219 per month for one person, or $1,640 per month for a married couple.

How to apply: Contact the Department of Human Services (DHS) in your county. The DHS office serving your county is listed in the State or County Government section of your local phone book under “Department of Human Services” or “Human Services.” County listings are available from the DHS website at www.dhs.state.ia.us or by calling toll-free 1-800-972-2017.

Medicare Rx Extra Help

Benefit: Pays for the monthly fee and deductible for Medicare prescription drug coverage, and lowers prescription drug co-payments.

Who can apply: People who get Medicare and have combined savings, investments and real estate (other than your home) are not worth more than $12,510 if you are single, or $25,010 if you are married and living with your spouse and have a limited income.

How to apply: Call the Social Security Administration toll-free at 1-800-772-1213 and ask for the Medicare Rx Extra Help application. You can also log on to www.socialsecurity.gov and click on the Medicare section.

For additional assistance, call the Iowa Senior Health Insurance Information Program (SHIIP) toll-free at 1-800-351-4664 or log on to www.shiip.state.ia.us.

Medicaid

Benefit: Provides medical coverage for hospital care, health center and clinical services, doctor care, nurse care, lab and X-ray services and nursing homes.

Who can apply: People who are 65 or older, blind or have disabilities, few resources, or in some cases, high medical bills. To qualify, you must meet Medicaid income and asset limits. Income limits vary, depending on the size of your family and where you live. Income limits also vary based on the particular Medicaid program for which you qualify, so contact your state Medicaid office for more information.

How to apply: An application and an interview need to be completed at the local county department of job and family services. The DHS office serving your county is listed in the State or County Government section of your local phone book under “Department of Human Services” or “Human Services.”

You may also contact the department’s Field Office Support Unit by calling 1-800-972-2017 or you can find a list of DHS offices online at www.dhs.state.ia.us by clicking on “Medical Assistance.”

Help with Your Home

State Property Tax Assistance

Benefit: The tax rate differs in each locality and is a composite of county, city, school district and special levies. A property tax credit is available to eligible senior residents.

Who can apply: People 65 and older whose total household income is less than $19,500. A homestead tax credit is given to residents who live in the state for at least six months of each year and actually live on the property on July 1. Once a person qualifies, the credit continues. Property taxes may be suspended or reduced if the property owner receives Supplemental Security Income or lives in a nursing home and the Department of Human Services is paying part or all of the costs.

How to apply: A property owner must file a claim with the county treasurer by July 1 preceding the fiscal year in which the property taxes are due. Renters must file with the Department of Revenue and Finance by June 1 to claim reimbursement for rent paid in the prior calendar year. The director or county treasurer may grant extensions of time to file. To talk to a tax specialist, call 515-281-3114 in Iowa, Rock Island, Moline, and Omaha; or toll-free at 1-800-367-3388; or log on to www.iowa.gov/tax/educate/78573.html.

Low Income Home Energy Assistance Programs

Benefit: Pays heating and cooling bills, and some energy-related home repairs.

Who can apply: Low-income people with household incomes less than $15,600 for one person, or $21,000 for two people. Income limits for home weatherization are slightly lower.

How to apply: For additional information or application assistance, call 515-281-3861 or log on to www.dcaa.iowa.gov/bureau_EA/index.html.

Telephone Assistance

Benefit: Helps pay for the cost of basic local telephone services.

Who can apply: Qualified low-income older adults. You are automatically eligible if you are in one of the following programs: Medicaid, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Federal Housing Assistance/Section 8 Programs, Food Stamps, Low Income Home Energy Assistance Programs, Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) General Assistance, and Tribally Administered Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF).

How to apply: Call your local phone company and tell the sales department that you want to apply for Link Up or Lifeline.

Help Buying Nutritious Food

Food Stamp Program

Benefit: An Electronic Benefits Transfer (EBT) card, similar to a debit card, that you can use like cash to pay for food at most grocery stores.

Who can apply: People with limited income and resources, especially people 60 and over.

How to apply: Contact the Iowa Department of Human Services toll-free 1-888-480-0062 or 319-472-4746 or log on to www.dhs.state.ia.us and click on “Food Assistance.”

Cash Assistance

Social Security

Benefit: Monthly checks. How much you get depends on how long you have worked, how much money you earned, where you worked, and your age when you began getting benefits.

Who can apply: Workers who are 62 or older, people with disabilities, or the spouse and children of a deceased or disabled worker who paid into the Social Security program.

How to apply: You can find out if you qualify for Social Security Benefits by using the screening tool on the Social Security website (www.socialsecurity.gov). If you qualify, you can apply for retirement benefits online at www.socialsecurity.gov. You can also make an appointment at your local Social Security Office. To find your local Social Security Office, call 1-800-772-1213 toll free and tell the operator where you live.

Supplemental Security Income (SSI)

Benefit: Monthly checks.

Who can apply: People who are 65 and older, or people who are blind or have disabilities and have very low income and assets.

How to apply: You must make an appointment at your local Social Security office to apply. You can find your local Social Security office by calling 1-800-772-1213 toll free and telling the operator where you live. Or, you can log on to www.ssa.gov/pgm/links_ssi.htm.

The AARP Foundation is AARP's affiliated charity. Foundation programs provide security, protection and empowerment for older persons in need. Low-income older workers receive the job training and placement they need to re-join the workforce. Free tax preparation is provided for low-and moderate-income individuals, with special attention to those 60 and older. The Foundation's litigation staff protects the legal rights of older Americans in critical health, long-term care, consumer and employment situations. Additional programs provide information, education and services to ensure that people over 50 lead lives of independence, dignity and purpose. Foundation programs are funded by grants, tax-deductible contributions and AARP.
