Paying for Health Care and Prescription Drugs

Medicare

Benefit: Health insurance that helps pay for preventive care, doctor visits, hospital stays and prescription drugs.

Who can apply: People who are 65 and older, and younger people with disabilities or kidney failure.

How to apply: Call the Social Security Administration toll-free at 1-800-772-1213 and tell the operator where you live. You can also log on to www.socialsecurity.gov and select “Questions about Medicare.” For information about the Medicare prescription drug coverage, call 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227) or log on to www.medicare.gov.

For additional assistance, call the Maine State Health Insurance Assistance Program (SHIP), toll-free at 1-800-300-5000 or 207-624-8470. Or, log on to www.state.me.us/dhhs/beas/hiap.

Medicare Savings Programs

Benefit: Pays for some of the costs of Medicare, including the Part B premium, deductibles, and co-payments. How much you get depends on your income and assets.

Who can apply: People who get Medicare and earn around $1,670 per month for one person, or $2,247 per month for a married couple.

How to apply: For more information, call your local Area Agency on Aging toll-free at 1-877-353-3771 or Legal Services for the Elderly toll-free at 1-800-750-5353 (voice and TTY).

Medicare Rx Extra Help

Benefit: Pays for the monthly fee and deductible for Medicare prescription drug coverage, and lowers prescription drug co-payments.

Who can apply: People who get Medicare and have combined savings, investments and real estate (other than your home) are not worth more than $12,510 if you are single, or $25,010 if you are married and living with your spouse and have a limited income.

How to apply: Call the Social Security Administration toll-free at 1-800-772-1213 and ask for the Medicare Rx Extra Help application. You can also log on to www.socialsecurity.gov and click on the Medicare section.

For additional assistance, call the Maine State Health Insurance Assistance Program (SHIP), toll-free at 1-800-300-5000 or 207-624-8470 or log on to www.state.me.us/dhhs/beas/hiap.

Maine Low Cost Drug Benefit (DEL) and Rx Plus

Benefit: The Low Cost Drugs For the Elderly or Disabled Program (DEL) allows participants to pay a co-payment of 20% of the cost of prescription medications plus $2.00 for drugs that are on the DEL Preferred Drug List. Maine Rx Plus helps members save 15% on brand-name drugs and up to 60% on generic drugs.

Who can apply: DEL is available to low-income individuals who are age 62 and older, or age 19 and older and have a disability. Eligibility is determined by your household yearly income. Maine Rx Plus is available to most Maine residents who have no prescription drug coverage and who meet the income eligibility guidelines.

How to apply: To apply for Maine Rx Plus and/or DEL, call toll-free at 1-866-RxMaine (1-866-796-2463) or log on to www.maine.gov/dhhs/oes/hieplde/exp.htm. You can also visit your health care provider or local participating pharmacy displaying the Maine Rx Plus logo.

Medicaid

Benefit: Provides medical coverage for hospital care, health center and clinical services, doctor care, nurse care, lab and X-ray services and nursing homes.

Who can apply: People who are 65 or older, blind or have disabilities, few resources, or in some cases, high medical bills. To qualify, you must meet Medicaid income and asset limits. Income limits vary, depending on the size of your family and where you live. Income limits also vary based on the particular Medicaid program for which you qualify, so contact your state Medicaid office for more information.

How to apply: For more information or to apply, call your local Department of Health and Human Services Regional Office, and ask to have an application mailed to you. Your local Area Agency on Aging also has MaineCare applications and can help you fill one out. To find your local Area Agency on Aging, call toll-free at 1-800-427-1241 or log on to www.maine.gov/dhss/oes/resource/aaa.htm.

Help with Your Home

State Property Tax Assistance

Benefit: If you are a qualified Maine homeowner or renter, you may be eligible for the Maine Property Tax and Rent Refund (formerly Circuit Breaker) Program or the Elderly Tax and Rent Rebate Program.

Who can apply: General tax assistance is for income eligible owners and renters of any age. Maximum refund is $2,000. People of any age who were assisted with their housing costs by a government subsidy are not eligible for this program. Elderly tax assistance is for people at least 62 years of age who meet low-income guidelines. Assistance may also be available to individuals age 55 and older who are disabled.

How to apply: To request an application, call Maine Revenue Services at 207-626-8475 or log on to www.maine.gov/revenue/forms/homepage.html. To order forms, call 207-624-7894. Application booklets are also available at town or city tax offices and at Area Agencies on Aging.

Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program

Benefit: Pays heating and cooling bills, and some energy-related home repairs.

Who can apply: Low-income people with annual incomes less than $20,800 for one person, or $28,000 for two people.

How to apply: For additional information or application assistance, call toll-free at 1-800-452-4668. Or, log on to www.mainehousing.org and click on “Energy” or www.energymaine.com/home_tips.htm.

Telephone Assistance

Benefit: Helps pay for the cost of basic local telephone services.

Who can apply: Qualified low-income older adults. You are automatically eligible if you are in one of the following programs: Medicaid, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Federal Housing Assistance/Section 8 Programs, Food Stamps, Low Income Home Energy Assistance Programs, Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) General Assistance, and Tribally Administered Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF).

How to apply: Call your local phone company and tell the sales department that you want to apply for Link Up or Lifeline.

Help Buying Nutritious Food

Food Supplement Program

Benefit: An Electronic Benefits Transfer (EBT) card, similar to a debit card, that you can use like cash to pay for food at most grocery stores.

Who can apply: People with limited income and resources, especially people 60 and over.

How to apply: Contact the Maine Equal Justice Partners at 207-287-7058 or log on to www.mejp.org/foodstampoverview.htm.

Cash Assistance

Social Security

Benefit: Monthly checks. How much you get depends on how long you have worked, how much money you earned, where you worked, and your age when you began getting benefits.

Who can apply: Workers who are 62 or older, people with disabilities, or the spouse and children of a deceased or disabled worker who paid into the Social Security program.

How to apply: You can find out if you qualify for Social Security Benefits by using the screening tool on the Social Security website (www.socialsecurity.gov). If you qualify, you can apply for retirement benefits online at www.socialsecurity.gov. You can also make an appointment at your local Social Security Office. The AARP Foundation is AARP's affiliated charity. Foundation programs provide security, protection and empowerment for older persons in need. Low-income older workers receive the job training and placement they need to re-join the workforce. Free tax preparation is provided for low-and moderate-income individuals, with special attention to those 60 and older. The Foundation's litigation staff protects the legal rights of older Americans in critical health, long-term care, consumer and employment situations. Additional programs provide information, education and services to ensure that people over 50 lead lives of independence, dignity and purpose. Foundation programs are funded by grants, tax-deductible contributions and AARP.
