or fax it to 1-406-444-3846. After your application is approved, you should enroll in a Medicare Approved Prescription Drug Plan that is offered in Montana. You do not have to wait until November to enroll because Big Sky Rx qualifies for the Special Enrollment Period (SEP).

Medicaid

Benefit: Provides medical coverage for hospital care, health center and clinical services, doctor care, nurse care, lab and X-ray services and nursing homes.

Who can apply: People who are 65 or older, blind or have disabilities, few resources, or in some cases, high medical bills. To qualify, you must meet Medicaid income and asset limits. Income limits vary, depending on the size of your family and where you live. Income limits also vary based on the particular Medicaid program for which you qualify, so contact your state Medicaid office for more information.

How to apply: You can get an application for Medicaid from any local Office of Public Assistance. For a complete list of county offices, log on to www.dphhs.mt.gov/contactus/countyservices.shtml.

Help with Your Home

State Property Tax Assistance

Benefit: Montana homeowners may have their property taxes reduced if they meet certain eligibility requirements. The amount varies depending on which type of property tax program they are eligible for and their income. Residential property of certain disabled veterans, and the spouses of deceased veterans, is exempt from property taxation.

Who can apply: Any homeowner or renter may have their property taxes reduced if their income is less than $19,944 for an individual or $26,592 for a married couple, and they have occupied the house as their primary residence for the last seven months. Disabled veterans or their surviving spouse may be exempt from property taxation if their annual adjusted gross income is less than $35,266 (single) or $42,319 (married). Additionally, income tax credit is available for qualifying individuals who are 62 and over as of December 31.

How to apply: For further information, visit the Montana Department of Revenue website at www.mt.gov/revenue/forindividuals/property/relieft.asp or call 406-444-6900.

The AARP Foundation is AARP's affiliated charity. Foundation programs provide security, protection and empowerment for older persons in need. Low-income older workers receive the job training and placement they need to re-join the workforce. Free tax preparation is provided for low-and moderate-income individuals, with special attention to those 60 and older. The Foundation's litigation staff protects the legal rights of older Americans in critical health, long-term care, consumer and employment situations. Additional programs provide information, education and services to ensure that people over 50 lead lives of independence, dignity and purpose. Foundation programs are funded by grants, tax-deductible contributions and AARP.
