Paying for Health Care and Prescription Drugs

Medicare

Benefit: Health insurance that helps pay for preventive care, doctor visits, hospital stays and prescription drugs.

Who can apply: People who are 65 and older, and younger people with disabilities or kidney failure.

How to apply: Call the Social Security Administration toll-free at 1-800-772-1213 and tell the operator where you live. You can also log on to www.socialsecurity.gov and select “Questions about Medicare.” For information about the Medicare prescription drug coverage, call 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227) or log on to www.medicare.gov.

For additional assistance, call the Nebraska Senior Health Insurance Information Program (SHIIP), also known as the Nebraska State Health Insurance Assistance Program (SHIP), toll-free at 1-800-234-7119 or 402-471-2201. Or, log on to www.doi.ne.gov/shiip.

Medicare Savings Programs

Benefit: Pays for some of the costs of Medicare, including the Part B premium, deductibles, and co-payments. How much you get depends on your income and assets.

Who can apply: People who get Medicare and earn around $1,239 per month for one person, or $1,660 per month for a married couple.

How to apply: To apply, an application must be completed and given to the Nebraska Department of Health & Human Services. For more information, contact your nearest Health and Human Services office. For a complete list of local offices, log on to www.hhs.state.ne.us/map/mapindex.htm or call toll-free at 1-800-430-3244. You can also download an application form from www.hhs.state.ne.us/med/medprog.htm and mail it to the nearest Health and Human Services office.

Medicare Rx Extra Help

Benefit: Pays for the monthly fee and deductible for Medicare prescription drug coverage, and lowers prescription drug co-payments.

Who can apply: People who get Medicare and have combined savings, investments and real estate (other than your home) are not worth more than $12,510 if you are single, or $25,010 if you are married and living with your spouse and have a limited income.

How to apply: Call the Social Security Administration toll-free at 1-800-772-1213 and ask for the Medicare Rx Extra Help application. You can also log on to www.socialsecurity.gov and click on the Medicare section.

For additional assistance, call the Nebraska Senior Health Insurance Information Program (SHIIP) toll-free at 1-800-234-7119 or 402-471-2201. Or, log on to www.doi.ne.gov/shiip.

Medicaid

Benefit: Provides medical coverage for hospital care, health center and clinical services, doctor care, nurse care, lab and X-ray services and nursing homes.

Who can apply: People who are 65 or older, blind or have disabilities, few resources, or in some cases, high medical bills. To qualify, you must meet Medicaid income and asset limits. Income limits vary, depending on the size of your family and where you live. Income limits also vary based on the particular Medicaid program for which you qualify, so contact your state Medicaid office for more information.

How to apply: To apply, an application must be completed and given to your local Nebraska Department of Health & Human Services. For a complete list of local offices, log on to www.hhs.state.ne.us/map/mapindex.htm or call 402-471-3121. You can also download an application form from www.hhs.state.ne.us/med/medprog.htm and mail it to the nearest Health and Human Services office.

Help with Your Home State Property Tax Assistance

Benefit: The Nebraska Homestead Exemption provides relief from property taxes by exempting all or a portion of the value of a person's home and up to one acre of land that the house is built on from property taxes.

Who can apply: Nebraska residents who are 65 or older by January 1 of the application year, have an income below $24,801 for one person, or $29,101 for a couple, and own and occupy their home from January 1-August 30 each year. People under age 65 with disabilities and disabled veterans may also be eligible for the exemption, but different guidelines apply. You can also deduct certain medical expenses from your income as part of the application process. Check with your county assessor's office for details.

How to apply: You must file a homestead exemption application with your county assessor after February 1, and on or before June 30 each year. For more information, call the Nebraska Department of Revenue toll-free at 1-800-742-7474 (in-state only) or 402-471-5729. Or, log on to www.revenue.ne.gov/homestead.html.

The AARP Foundation is AARP's affiliated charity. Foundation programs provide security, protection and empowerment for older persons in need. Low-income older workers receive the job training and placement they need to re-join the workforce. Free tax preparation is provided for low-and moderate-income individuals, with special attention to those 60 and older. The Foundation's litigation staff protects the legal rights of older Americans in critical health, long-term care, consumer and employment situations. Additional programs provide information, education and services to ensure that people over 50 lead lives of independence, dignity and purpose. Foundation programs are funded by grants, tax-deductible contributions and AARP.
