Benefit: RxConnect is a state program that connects people with limited incomes with discount prescription drugs direct from the manufacturer. Information is available on discount drugs as well as resources to help improve your health.

How to apply: For more information or an application, call toll-free 1-866-221-0265 or log on to www.health.utah.gov/rxconnectutah.

Medicaid

Benefit: Provides medical coverage for hospital care, health center and clinical services, doctor care, nurse care, lab and X-ray services and nursing homes.

Who can apply: People who are 65 or older, blind or have disabilities, few resources, or in some cases, high medical bills. To qualify, you must meet Medicaid income and asset limits. Income limits vary, depending on the size of your family and where you live. Income limits also vary based on the particular Medicaid program for which you qualify, so contact your state Medicaid office for more information.

How to apply: Apply at your local Health Department office. For more information, call the Utah Information Line toll-free at 1-800-662-9651.

Help with Your Home

State Property Tax Assistance

Benefit: Qualified older adults are eligible to receive a credit for property taxes up to $851, plus a credit equal to the tax on 20 percent of their property's fair market value. A circuit breaker tax credit for people age 65 and over (or surviving spouse) permits an abatement or deferral of property taxes, but the amount of the credit varies with household income and can apply to the portion of rent that goes to pay property taxes.

Who can apply: Homeowners and renters 65 and older who earn $28,732 or less.

How to apply: For more information, visit the Utah State Tax Commission website at <http://tax.utah.gov> or call toll-free at 1-800-662-4335.

Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program

Benefit: Pays heating and cooling bills, and some energy-related home repairs.

Who can apply: Low-income people with annual incomes less than $15,600 for one person or $21,000 for two people.

How to apply: For application assistance, call toll-free at 1-877-488-3233 or log on to <http://housing.utah.gov/wap/index.html>.

Telephone Assistance

Benefit: Helps pay for the cost of basic local telephone services.

Who can apply: Qualified low-income older adults. You are automatically eligible if you are in one of the following programs: Medicaid, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Federal Housing Assistance/Section 8 Programs, Food Stamps, Low Income Home Energy Assistance Programs, Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) General Assistance, and Tribally Administered Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF).

How to apply: Call your local phone company and tell the sales department that you want to apply for Link Up or Lifeline.

Help Buying Nutritious Food

Food Stamp Program

Benefit: An Electronic Benefits Transfer (EBT) card, similar to a debit card, that you can use like cash to pay for food at most grocery stores.

Who can apply: People with limited income and resources, especially people 60 and over.

How to apply: Call the Food Stamp hotline toll-free at 1-866-526-3663 or log on to <http://jobs.utah.gov/opencms/customereducation/services/foodstamps/index.html>.

Cash Assistance

Social Security

Benefit: Monthly checks. How much you get depends on how long you have worked, how much money you earned, where you worked, and your age when you began getting benefits.

Who can apply: Workers who are 62 or older, people with disabilities, or the spouse and children of a deceased or disabled worker who paid into the Social Security program.

How to apply: You can find out if you qualify for Social Security Benefits by using the screening tool on the Social Security website (www.socialsecurity.gov). If you qualify, you can apply for retirement benefits online at www.socialsecurity.gov. You can also make an appointment at your local Social Security Office. To find your local Social Security Office, call 1-800-772-1213 toll free and tell the operator where you live.

Supplemental Security Income (SSI)

Benefit: Monthly checks.

Who can apply: People who are 65 and older, or people who are blind or have disabilities and have very low income and assets.

How to apply: You must make an appointment at your local Social Security office to apply. You can find your local Social Security office by calling 1-800-772-1213 toll free and telling the operator where you live. Or, you can log on to www.ssa.gov/pgm/links_ssi.htm.

The AARP Foundation is AARP's affiliated charity. Foundation programs provide security, protection and empowerment for older persons in need. Low-income older workers receive the job training and placement they need to re-join the workforce. Free tax preparation is provided for low-and moderate-income individuals, with special attention to those 60 and older. The Foundation's litigation staff protects the legal rights of older Americans in critical health, long-term care, consumer and employment situations. Additional programs provide information, education and services to ensure that people over 50 lead lives of independence, dignity and purpose. Foundation programs are funded by grants, tax-deductible contributions and AARP.
