Help with Your Home

State Property Tax Assistance

Benefit: If you are a senior citizen or have a disability, Washington has two programs that may help you pay your property taxes and/or special assessments. The property tax exemption program helps some senior citizens and people with disabilities reduce their payment of property taxes. The Property Tax Deferral for Senior Citizens and Disabled Persons is an alternative program for seniors with low to moderate incomes.

Who can apply: Washington residents age 61 and older with an annual household disposable income less than $35,000 may qualify for the exemption. If you are 60 years of age and your household income is less than $40,000, you may qualify for the deferral program.

How to apply: Your county assessor administers these programs and is responsible for determining if you meet the qualifications. Please contact your local assessor's office to request an application form or contact the Treasurer's office at 319-653-7723.

Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program

Benefit: Pays heating and cooling bills, and some energy-related home repairs.

Who can apply: Low-income people with annual incomes less than $12,996 for one person, or $17,496 for two people.

How to apply: For application assistance, call 360-725-2861 or log on to www.liheapwa.org.

Telephone Assistance

Benefit: Helps pay for the cost of basic local telephone services.

Who can apply: Qualified low-income older adults. You are automatically eligible if you are in one of the following programs: Medicaid, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Federal Housing Assistance/Section 8 Programs, Food Stamps, Low Income Home Energy Assistance Programs, Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) General Assistance, and Tribally Administered Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF).

How to apply: Call your local phone company and tell the sales department that you want to apply for Link Up or Lifeline.

Help Buying Nutritious Food

Food Stamp Program

Benefit: An Electronic Benefits Transfer (EBT) card, similar to a debit card, that you can use like cash to pay for food at most grocery stores.

Who can apply: People with limited income and resources, especially people 60 and over.

How to apply: Contact the Washington Department of Social and Health Services toll-free at 1-877-514-3663 (statewide) or apply online at www.dshs.wa.gov.

Cash Assistance

Social Security

Benefit: Monthly checks. How much you get depends on how long you have worked, how much money you earned, where you worked, and your age when you began getting benefits.

Who can apply: Workers who are 62 or older, people with disabilities, or the spouse and children of a deceased or disabled worker who paid into the Social Security program.

How to apply: You can find out if you qualify for Social Security Benefits by using the screening tool on the Social Security website (www.socialsecurity.gov). If you qualify, you can apply for retirement benefits online at www.socialsecurity.gov. You can also make an appointment at your local Social Security Office. To find your local Social Security Office, call 1-800-772-1213 toll free and tell the operator where you live.

Supplemental Security Income (SSI)

Benefit: Monthly checks.

Who can apply: People who are 65 and older, or people who are blind or have disabilities and have very low income and assets.

How to apply: You must make an appointment at your local Social Security office to apply. You can find your local Social Security office by calling 1-800-772-1213 toll free and telling the operator where you live. Or, you can log on to www.ssa.gov/pgm/links_ssi.htm.

Benefits Outreach Program

601 E Street, NW
Washington, DC 20049
1-888-OUR-AARP (1-888-687-2277)
Email: benefitsoutreach@aarp.org

D18723 (0110)

The AARP Foundation is AARP's affiliated charity. Foundation programs provide security, protection and empowerment for older persons in need. Low-income older workers receive the job training and placement they need to re-join the workforce. Free tax preparation is provided for low-and moderate-income individuals, with special attention to those 60 and older. The Foundation's litigation staff protects the legal rights of older Americans in critical health, long-term care, consumer and employment situations. Additional programs provide information, education and services to ensure that people over 50 lead lives of independence, dignity and purpose. Foundation programs are funded by grants, tax-deductible contributions and AARP.
